

Who am I? A Pig or a Man?

Translation in English from Old Greek by A. Chaniotis, A World of Emotions: The Making of an Exhibition, IAS 2017 (cfr. in Italian, M.Nocita “Per mari e per terre” Spolia 2006, n. 20 tav. II A):

“Here lies “the Pig” beloved by all, a young quadruped. I left the land Dalmatia, when I was given as a gift. I reached Dyrrachium and yearned for Apollonia. I crossed every land with my own feet, alone, undefeated. But now I have left the light because of the violence of the wheels. I wished to see Emathie and the wagon of the phallus, but now here I rest, although I was too young to pay my tribute to death”.

Itinerary: From DALMATIA (Croazia) to EMATHIE (Makedonia) along the Egnatian Way coming from Italy

Message: Young Journey, Young Dream

Pella, Ephorate of Antiquities, AKA 1674, cfr. “Per mari e per terre” Spolia 2006, n. 20 tav. II A